EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND'S CAPITAL

Rich in historic buildings and monuments, with the mediaeval Old Town being a UNESCO World Heritage Site, Edinburgh seamlessly blends old and new, providing locals with the perfect destination to experience the sights, sounds and tastes of a diverse city.

The city's backdrop of Edinburgh Castle, perched on top of an extinct volcano, makes Edinburgh a remarkable place to visit.

Edinburgh is also the world's leading festival city, with 12 major annual festivals bringing talents from all over the world; Edinburgh International Film Festival, Edinburgh Fringe and Military Tattoo lead the way to an unforgettable summer.

This remarkable city also leaves you spoilt for choice when it comes to golf, lying within easy reach of two of the world's premier golf courses: Muirfield, host of The Open, a few miles west and Gleneagles, host of The Ryder Cup, about an hour's drive.

EXPERIENCE

MICHELIN-STARRED CHEFS CHRIS AND JEFF GALVIN

Brothers Chris and Jeff Galvin are two of Britain's most influential chefs. With over 50 years experience between them, they have worked in some of London's most revered kitchens, cooking for royalty, celebrities and film stars. In 2005 they opened their first restaurant and since then they have been applauded by peers and critics alike. They are never more at home than when behind the stoves of their award-winning restaurants, which have garnered Michelin stars, AA rosettes and over 30 top accolades. Many of their dishes are influenced by their culinary upbringing in French cuisine and demonstrate the good taste and thoughtfulness of the brothers - their generosity of giving and their respect for ingredients. What they look for first and foremost is quality and luxury in simplicity.

THE POMPADOUR BY GALVIN

The Pompadour by Galvin takes its name from the "favourite mistress" of King Louis XV of France and its listed interior décor reflects the sumptuousness of the royal court of the day. This award-winning restaurant serves classic French-inspired dishes prepared with the finest, locally sourced, seasonal ingredients.

GALVIN BRASSERIE DE LUXE

This spacious brasserie offers a slice of Paris in the heart of Edinburgh. With a theatrical crustacea showcase forming part of the central bar, it is a great meeting place for families, colleagues and friends. Galvin Brasserie de Luxe was awarded a Michelin Bib Gourmand in 2013.

THE CALEY BAR

The design of The Caley is themed on the grandeur of the Caledonian Railway of the 19th Century combined with overtones of the plush furnishings of the Orient Express, making for a striking and beautiful setting.
