

INDIGO PEARL
WEDDING INSTYLE

Marry in Style...

Indigo Pearl: Marrying Style & Experience

A magical wedding is about tales, textures, and the two of you. It's also about attention to detail, listening, and ensuring nothing is left to chance. Indigo Pearl's team has mined the collective weddings of more than 200 Thai and international couples to refine and distill the essence of perfect nuptials.

From the moment our couple arrives, they are showered with care and every conceivable luxury, sheltered from sources of stress and encouraged to enjoy their time in paradise.

Magical weddings are also about location, ambiance, and choice. Many couples share the dream of a tropical beach wedding in paradise – but the similarities between those dreams ends there. Indigo Pearl offers locations from its stunning North Phuket beachfront at Nai Yang Beach to its exotic and spacious Coliseum Gardens, or even the wild and untamed forests of Phuket's only national park on the resort's doorstep. All Discover bold luxury, where historic details and surreal twists meet Thai warmth - rough

Dream Weddings by Design

Weddings that make memories are magic. Indigo Pearl is a wedding photographer's dream, with the raw sensuality, bold luxury, penchant for history and surreal twists that inform Bill Bensley's vision apparent at every turn. Inspired by the glory days of tin mining on Phuket,

Indigo Pearl also features a profusion of show-stopping 'industrial chic' art pieces and installations, some larger than life, all irresistibly photogenic. As are the resort's vast and beautifully landscaped grounds, its lush tropical gardens and three pools, and an array of unique and buzz-worthy restaurants and bars.

Another signature Indigo Pearl touch is bespoke flower décor arranged by the talented Heliconia Flower Designer Team lead by Michael Pritchard. The Australian has chalked up more than 40 years in the flower industry, designing weddings and events for high profile couples from Sydney to Bali, his current base, and now Phuket.

(PLEASE NOTE: Our Western wedding ceremonies are both non-legal and non-religious. The Thai wedding ceremony is a religious one but non-legal. We are unable to assist with legal arrangements since registrations of marriages have to be done by the bride & groom at their embassies in Bangkok. We can assist with the final registration on the wedding day at the resort. All package prices are subject to 17.7% taxes & service charge.)

Important Notice (for Thai-Style Weddings):

Since couples choose a religious ceremony we have to strictly respect customs. The couple will be briefed on the ceremony and the meaning of all events. Since this ceremony is much different from the Western Wedding Ceremony, we have to make couples aware of certain customs where we cannot make any compromise between "both worlds":

- Wedding Dress: We will gladly provide the bride with a Thai dress (advance notice is required). Should the bride, however, prefer to wear her own dress; she must be aware of the customs (i.e. not low shoulders covering the legs). All attending persons also have to strictly follow this dress code
- Exchange of Rings: Thai weddings do not feature exchange of rings, however should this be needed we can request
- Location: Ceremonies involving monks are only held indoors
- Flowers: We can fulfill most requests regarding flowers. However, some flowers should not be associated with Thai weddings
- Set-up: Thai Style weddings are pretty much fixed in their set-up and it might prove difficult if not impossible to accommodate special requests in this regard

Phuket Weather

Phuket has a tropical monsoonal climate, hot and humid throughout the year. The temperature varies between 26-35 degrees Celsius all year round and the seasons are divided into two; dry and rainy.

The rainy season starts from around May and runs to October. During this period Andaman seas can at times be rough. There is still plenty of sun interspersed with heavy tropical showers.

The dry season is for the remainder of the year and between November and April the Andaman seas become calm and clear.

Contingency plan for outdoor venue

Rain call time is 12.00 hrs on wedding day base on weather condition. Back up venue is Rebar, Rivet, Tin Mine or function room subject to availability and number of guests.
